OPEN CALL FOR PROPOSALS

New Exhibition Opportunities For Artists, Curators & Lenders

The Grand Galleries are a contemporary visual arts space located within the Grand Theatre Center for the Arts in historic downtown Tracy, California. This celebrated 37,000 sq.' interdisciplinary fine arts and education facility is owned and operated by the City of Tracy. The Exhibitions Program provides professional exhibition opportunities in the Central Valley near the Bay Area and Sacramento. Negotiable funding is also available for accommodations, production, return shipping, travel, and special needs.

The Exhibitions Program seeks diverse programming proposals from artists, curators, educators, collectives, and collection lenders. Proposals will be reviewed by the Grand Galleries Advisory Committee and recommended for exhibition opportunities. Proposals are open to all media including installation, new media, and performance art; there are no geographic restrictions. Work must have been completed in the past three years unless part of a thematic grouping or collection. Artists may also submit proposals for new works, providing samples of work representative for review. As the Galleries are part of a larger interdisciplinary arts center fostering community involvement and life learning, collaborators who are available for demonstration, residency, outreach, and workshop options are preferred. Proposals may be mailed or emailed as instructed below. All submitted materials should be considered a public document and incomplete proposals are subject to disqualification.

For consideration please provide the following materials:

1. 10 to 15 images in the form of quality color photographs, reproductions, or Mac/PC compatible CD/DVD. A corresponding image list (electronic & hard copy) that includes title, media, year of creation and size of each work. Artists working in non-traditional formats such as new media or installation may opt to submit a 5–10 minute video on a Mac/PC compatible CD/DVD; mpg/mov files.
2. Professional Resume or CV including Exhibition Record and Artist's Biography
3. Exhibition Concept / Statement of Intent
4. Preference for Exhibition Type: Solo Collaborative Group Thematic Group
5. Date Restrictions - Exhibitions may be scheduled up to 18 months after review.
6. Additional support materials are optional. S.A.S.E for return of materials. Failure to provide will result in the disposal of materials at the program's discretion post-review. Select materials may be kept on file for future reference.

ART CO-OP TED

Exhibition Opportunities for Artists, Lenders, Writers & Musicians to participate in a curated Co-Op at the Grand Theatre Center for the Arts

The Grand Galleries are a contemporary, municipal visual arts space located within the Grand Theatre Center for the Arts in historic downtown Tracy, California. This 37,000 sq.' interdisciplinary fine arts and education facility is owned and operated by the City of Tracy. The Exhibitions Program provides professional exhibition opportunities in the Central Valley near the Bay Area and Sacramento.

Since December of 2009, the Grand Galleries have invited Artists & Lenders to be part of an exciting collaboration. The South Gallery serves as a modern curated cooperative exhibition space. Artists are needed to exhibit original artwork, limited editions and artist-designed products in the form of art making materials, arts education materials, children's creative products, clothing, jewelry, media (publications, books, cds, dvds), toys and more.

This unique venue features price points under $500 with exclusive art and products available for a limited time. As the Galleries are part of a larger interdisciplinary arts center fostering community involvement and life learning, products incorporating arts education are encouraged. Local-area Writers, Musicians, Songwriters, Poets and Spoken-Word Artists with publications and audio/visual recordings are also invited to participate.

- Participating Artists receive 80% of sales and the Exhibitions Program retains a 20% commission.
- Local Artists are encouraged to schedule a review meeting.

● Visual Artists & Lenders, for consideration please provide the following materials:
